DEFENSE DAY IS TO BE PROFITABLE

Will Inform the American Public in the Meaning and Operation of the National Defense Act—Date Is September 12

PUBLIC TO TEST ITSELF

Defense Day Will Show Whether the United States Has an Organization Which Can Be the Basis of a Real Citizens' Army—A Real Defense For Nation

America's greatest demonstration in patriotism and preparedness is set for September 12, National Defense day, as it is to be called.

On that day in every city and hamlet of the United States, in field and factory and outlying island possessions, wherever the Stars and Stripes are unfurled, citizens are asked to offer their services to their country just as if an actual war, instead of a make-believe war, had been declared. A large part of the vast combatant potentialities of the nation will be mobilized to show what its citizens would do and what its military organizations could do if the actual emergency arose.

The demonstration will be a tribute to General John J. Pershing, commander-in-chief of the American Expeditionary forces during the war. It will also be his valedictory as on the following day he automatically retires from the office of chief of staff which he has held since the war, and from active service in the United States army, having reached the retiring age of 64 years.

Defense day will be the first practical test of the peace-time working of the National Defense act, a test in which every man, woman and child in the United States should be interested. The date selected is the anniversary of the battle of St. Mihiel, September 12, 1918, the first operation of the American army in France.

The success of this day—a demonstration of the organization of a nation of 110,000,000; organizing which has been accomplished quietly, efficiently, peacefully, almost unobserved and unknown, without interruption of their productive pursuits and depending only on the ability and voluntary patriotism of its men and women—will in the opinion of General Pershing be an achievement greater than anything which he accomplished in France.

On defense day itself, however, Washington or the War department will not direct, but merely observe. The local communities and the responsible local citizens will work out the problem with the machinery which is in their home cities and towns today. Except for the militia company, an occasional reserve officer, a graduate of an Officers' Training camp or a Reserve Officer, none with a definite duty, in a vast skeleton organization, this machinery did not exist when the last war was declared.

MINE TO OPERATE ON A 90 PERCENT BASIS

After a suspension of work lasting two months, the Acme mine of the Ellsworth Division of the Bethlehem Mines Corporation, again resumed operations on Tuesday morning of this week.

Orders were received by J. P. McCune, General Superintendent of the Ellsworth Division, on Saturday of last week, to start operations at one of the Corporations mines, on a four days a week basis.

By order of Mr. McCune the 75 horses and mules which had been grazing on the corporation's farm at Ellsworth since the mine has been closed down, were returned to the mine on Monday.

The 450 men who had been idle since the mine shut down on June 18, again entered the mine on Tuesday morning.

The Marianna, Cokeburg, Ellsworth No. 1 and Hazel Kirk No. 2 mines of this corporation are still idle, but it is rumored that Cokeburg and Marianna mines will resume operation in the very near future.

Mr. Jones, superintendent of Acme mine, on Wednesday morning, is reported to have said "that within a short time, they would be operating the Acme mine on a 100 per cent basis. The Acme mine which is No. 57 of the Bethlehem Mine Corporation, is located at Bentleyville.

BODY OF CLARENCE SCOTT RECOVERED

The body of Clarence Scott, aged 50, a riverman, familiarly known as "Beefsteak Scotty" who was drowned in the Monongahela river yesterday morning just before noon, near his home in Second Hollow, Fallowfield township, was recovered at 1:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon, a short distance from the place where he went under. Immediately upon receiving the alarm of his drowning, men of the Lock and boat yards went to the scene of the tragedy and began proceedings for dragging the river. After two hours of continuous dragging and diving, the body was brought to the surface and taken to the undertaking establishment of Lawrence B. Frye of Charleroi, where preparations for burial have been made.

A brother of the dead man, Fred Scott, of 220 East Lakock street, Pittsburgh, was summoned and came to Charleroi last night to identify his brother. Mr. Scott stated that there were other brothers living, but all trace of their whereabouts had been lost.

Fliers Fly 825 Miles In 12 Hours

Reykjavik, Iceland, August 22.—Lieutenant Lowell Smith and Eric Nelson, after bucking a strong northeasterly gale for hours arrived at Fredericksdal, Greenland, last evening, having completed their 825 mile jump in a little less than 12 hours of continuous flying.

The fatigue of the fliers, coupled with the delay in their arrival, caused by the northeaster that fanned their machines made it difficult for them to continue to Vigtur, the next stop on their journey and the point Lieutenant Smith wished to reach if weather conditions and flying time had permitted.

There is no definite word that Lieutenant Locatelli, the Italian airman who jumped off here with the Americans yesterday morning, arrived with them at Greenland.

The plane of Lieutenant Smith was to continue the flight today with the short jump to Vigtur, due north from Fredericksdal, where a full day's layover is contemplated for overhauling the machines preliminary to spanning the 572 miles from Vigtur to Indian Harbor, Labrador.

LEGION MEN PRAISED FOR WORK IN JAPAN

Greensburg, August 22.—Tribute to the valor and devotion of American Legion men in Japan in the day immediately following the earthquake last September, was one of the features of the State convention of the American Legion here today.

Another special speaker scheduled today is the Hon. James J. Davis, Secretary of Labor.

Resolutions to be presented to the convention include denunciations of those speaking to hinder the country's plans for National Preparedness day, and another resolution will be asked that General Hines, former director of the veteran's bureau, who had been charged with misconduct in office be brought to speedy trial.

CHILD KILLED BY A TRAIN

Nickolas Homyak, aged 20 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Homyak of Monongahela, was instantly killed Tuesday evening shortly after 10 o'clock, when he was struck by a passenger train on the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie tracks at Bunola, Forward township, a short distance below Monongahela.

The child, accompanied by an older sister, was crossing the tracks, near a sharp curve where the view is obstructed. The sister of the child had proceeded several feet ahead of the infant and the westbound passenger train which travels at a fast rate of speed at this point struck the child, killing it instantly. The train was stopped and the body was removed to Elizabeth.

A LADY OF 80 AMONG THE DEAD

Mrs. Jennie B. Aiken, aged 70 years, widow of John Aiken, a former well-known attorney of Washington, died yesterday evening at the home of her son, Blaine Aiken, 60 East Wheeling street, Washington.

Mrs. Aiken was a member of the First Presbyterian church and as long as health permitted took an active part in the affairs of the church, in which her husband was for many years an elder.

Mrs. Aiken is survived by the following children: Attorney Blaine Aiken, Washington; Mrs. Arthur Penn, Saltcoats, Canada; Mrs. Elsie Aiken Cannon, Pittsburgh; and Col. Case Against Hazen Neil Is Ignored

The case against Hazen Neil, of Monongahela, charged with involuntary manslaughter, was ignored late Wednesday afternoon by the grand jury. Neil was arrested for the killing of William Meire, aged seven on Main street, Monongahela, on May 22, 1924. Neil was driving a Ford roadster, when the child ran in front of the machine. The evidence at the coroner's inquest showed that Neil was exonerated from blame. However, August Meire, the father of the child, made an information against Neil, charging him with involuntary manslaughter. The costs were placed on the county.

A true bill was found against A. J. O'Donnell, of Donora, a former bookkeeper in the Bank of Donora, who is charged with embezzlement, etc. The following is the list of cases disposed of:

Paul Milovich, Steve and Carl Stantalk, of the Bentleyville section, were indicted yesterday for a double murder, the killing of Spiro Maranich and Fritz Zec. Susie Jackson Brown Freeman, colored, was indicted for (Continued on page five)

DRY WEATHER HURT FRUITS ABOVE GARDENS

Harrisburg, August 22.—The hot dry weather in July didn't hurt the gardens as much as fruits, the State Department of Agriculture has announced.

The erratic weather of the past summer with heavy and continuous rains preceding a stage of drought has had conflicting results, according to this statement which follows:

"Hot dry weather prevailed for the most part during July and many of the crops suffered for want of moisture toward the close of the month.

The greatest decline was recorded in the apple, peach and pear crops, with pastures also falling off in condition as a result of the comparative drought of recent weeks.

"The condition of corn, potatoes, spring wheat and alfalfa remained practically unchanged during the month, while barley, tobacco, garden and truck crops advanced and indicated that they are overcoming the handicap of too much rain earlier in the season."

Ex-Leaguers Show Flashes of Their Old-Time Form—Messrs Wolfe, Tener and Phillips Twirl For Ex-Leaguers, Form Shown By Phillips Surprising

Evidencing the fact that time has wrought its changes, that the spirit lives but the bodily functions fail to respond, the diamond heroes of other days, before a crowd of approximately 2,500 people, responded to the call and with flashes of their old-time form immensely interested the fans of today and of bygone days, when they met Charleroi Independents Baseball team in the contest of contests at the Charleroi Baseball park yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Jack Mier officiated in the capacity of announcer, and the concourse was visibly disappointed when the statement was made of the inability of Hans Wagner and Deacon Philippe to appear. The final score was 6-5 in favor of the Charleroi Independents, the ex-leaguers leading their youthful opponents up until the eighth inning, when "Bill" Phillips landed on one of "Dad's" offerings, tying up the contest.

As the ex-leaguers stepped to the plate, their names and the clubs with which they were formerly affiliated was announced by Jack Mier. This far-seeing part of the program was appreciated by the crowd, which was comprised of people from not only this locality, but visitors were present from Ohio, West Virginia, and other sections. The old-timers were each given a hearty ovation and during the game when any of them did stunts as a reminder of their prowess of bygone days, the concourse responded in a manner which left no doubt in their minds of the popular esteem in which they are held.

After the ex-leaguers had been retired in order in the first inning, Wolfe went on the slab for the former leaguers, with Tom P. Sloan umpiring balls and strikes, and Guy Woodward and Harry W. Scott the bases. After pitching a couple of innings, Wolfe was succeeded by Menefee, and he by former governor (Continued on Page Two)

Mrs. Grover C. Mikesell, Wellknown Scenery Hill Lady, Dies In Hospital

ONE KILLED, 3 HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. Laura Mikesell, wife of Grover C. Mikesell, died in the Washington hospital yesterday morning, following an operation. Her death comes as a severe shock to her friends and to the community as the seriousness of her condition was not known.

Mrs. Mikesell had been ill of a complication of diseases for over a week and Wednesday evening she was rushed to the hospital and operated upon. Owing to her weakened condition she was not able to withstand the shock of the operation.

Mrs. Mikesell, a daughter of the late J. V. and Catherine Moninger Kneestrick, was born near Lone Pine, March 26, 1850. She was twice married. Her first husband, whom she married June 26, 1897, was Emmett W. Mikesell and to them were born two daughters and a son, Loretta, Edna and Francis. She married her second husband, Grover C. Mikesell, August 20, 1913 and to this union was born one son, Grover Jr. Besides her husband and four children she leaves three brothers.

Mrs. Mikesell was an active worker in church and community welfare and was highly esteemed wherever known.

The funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Mt. Calvary church of Scenery Hill, of which she was a member and will be in charge of her pastor, Rev. I. Noble Dundore, assisted by Rev. H. F. Obenauf, of Etna, Pittsburgh, and a former pastor of the Scenery Hill Lutheran parish. Short services at the home will precede the church services. Interment will be in the Scenery Hill cemetery.

CIVIL ENGINEER DAVID DAVIS DIES WEDNESDAY

David Davis, aged 40 years, a former resident of Belle Vernon, and well-known throughout the Monongahela valley, died Wednesday afternoon in the Columbia hospital, Pittsburgh, where he had been confined for the past three weeks.

He was the son of William and the late Mary Ann Davis of Grove City. The family resided in Belle Vernon for a number of years, going to Grove City about ten years ago, where they have since made their home.

Mr. Davis was a civil engineer, and has been located in Huntingdon for the past twelve years. He was a member of the Belle Vernon lodge of the Shrine in Altoona. He was graduated from California Normal and Pennsylvania State College, and served with the Fifteenth Engineers in France during the World war.

SUPREME EFFORT TO SAVE MURDERERS

Criminal Court Room, Chicago, August 22.—The supreme effort to save Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb from the gallows for murdering Robert Franks, was scheduled for today.

Attorney Clarence Darrow, termed the "old lion," planned to start his closing argument before Chief Justice John E. Caverly late in the morning session or at the start of the afternoon session.

Darrow said he would take the floor as soon as Attorney Walter Bachrach, another defense attorney, concludes his argument or the medical phases of the case.

Bachrach said he probably would finish his argument an hour after the morning session convenes. Bachrach started talking an hour before the afternoon session ended yesterday. He argued for the court to separate the penalty from responsibility, holding that the court could sentence the youths to 14 years in jail without lessening their responsibility. Bachrach also sought to show the presence of "mental disease" in the youths, urging this condition in "mitigation of punishment."

Darrow, as chief defense counsel, made a change in plans. The original plan called for Benjamin Bachrach to follow Walter with an argument on certain legal phases of the case. But Darrow decided to follow Walter. It

HORMELL FAMILY REUNES YESTERDAY AT OAKLAND PARK

The annual reunion of the Hormell family was held at Oakland Park yesterday with an attendance of 157. One of the main features of the day was the serving of the dinner to the large family and which was enjoyed by all.

Harry Wolfe of McKean avenue was elected president; Harry Wolfe of Dormont, vice president; and Mrs. W. J. Palmer of McKean avenue, as secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Sherman Walk of Wilkensburg was authorized to vote her time in writing the history of the Hormell family.

A short entertainment was held with readings by Miss Mary Leach, Hormell and Miss Ruth Hormell. The remainder of the day was spent in the cemetery.

MONESSEN WILL TRY TO SHAKE THE JINX AND BEAT CHARLEROI

Tomorrow afternoon, the contest being scheduled for 3:30 o'clock, the Monessen Legion team the attraction of the Charleroi Baseball park will try to shake the jinx which has been their portion in the two contests which have been played between the club and the Charleroi Indians.

Beatty, who has had a week's rest, and who was in the main responsible for the brace of victories achieved by the Charleroi team, will be in the box for the first time.

A peculiar feature in the connection with the contest, and in fact recent games and the contest played last Saturday with the Homestead Grays, is that three of the original Monessen team will be seen playing with Charleroi.

Among them are Anderson, Costello and Gray, all of whom have been regulars in the Charleroi team.

The matter is, that the Charleroi club has lost a number of games this year by being weak at second base in the catcher's position. Manager Mathers succeeded in signing

Gray, the crack second baseman of the Legion team, and his work since joining the locals has been little short of spectacular. Mr. Mathers then succeeded in affixing Costello's signature to a contract and he appeared to advantage in the contest which Charleroi won over the Grays.

Charleroi will have its regular players in the game with Monessen tomorrow, and the contest promises to be warmly contested, as Monessen will try its utmost to win.

HARRY GREB GIVES "TIGER" FLOWERS A LESSON IN BOXING

Harry Greb, middleweight champion of the world, took Tiger Flowers, Negro flash, from Atlanta, into the ring on the outskirts of Fremont, last night and gave him a nice lesson in boxing. The highly touted flowers, reputed for his speed and lightning skill, was but a novice in the hands of the cool and collected champion. Harry toyed with the would-be challenger, opening up just enough spots to carry the fight by a safe margin, taking eight of the 10 rounds and evening up two.

Flowers was just fast enough to make the champ flash his stuff, though to please a crowd of about 1,000 persons, who crowded the mon and Miller outdoor arena, a few disgruntled ones left the enclosure, but the vast majority was completely satisfied.

Soft Drinks Traced to American Revolution

There is an interesting story about how the first soft drinks happened to be made.

Back in the days of the American revolution a man named Townsend Speakman was running a little drug store in Philadelphia. He supplied medicines for Washington's army, and as pretty well known. One day, a doctor asked him to fill a prescription of carbonated water. Drug Store Speakman succeeded in commanding the concoction. The doctor's patient liked the new water, and one patient after another passed the word around and before long the word around and before long the soft drink business was a fact. Business man and conceived the idea of favoring the medicine water with citrus juices to increase its popularity. He began working. Its popularity spread like wildfire. That was the beginning of the carbonated soft drink business.

The soft drink business has been growing ever since. Last year for example, the people in the United States consumed 8,000,000 bottles of non-alcoholic beverages, an average of 75 bottles for every man, woman and

Demons and Storms

Evil spirits and demons were held by the ancients to be responsible for the misdeeds of those who tempted the gods by trying to pass the boundaries of the gods had interposed between the mortals. The discovery of the fact of Good Hope was long delayed. The storm winds which howled in the African coast; though it fell in the Isle of Man, have been traced to the capturing people of the Amazon, which is at the mouth of the Amazon River.

The only explanation which the facts will admit is that the snake has been overlooked in the intervening territory of Florida, Georgia and the remainder of South Carolina. Further

EX-LEAGUERS LOSE

IN A GREAT GAME

Tener, and William Phillips, Sr., finishing the game. All of these men showed flashes of their old-time form, a feature of which was the catching by Mr. Tener of Krosnoff off first base in an attempt by the Charleroi shortstop to steal second. Monfefe also played well at first after succeeding Mr. Tener.

The old-timers ran up a score of three runs in the third inning, due a fine two-base blow by Mr. Tener, and other good batting by his confederates. This lead they held until the futile eighth inning.

Without detracting from the skill still shown by the Messrs. Wolfe, must be said that the best work in the pitching line by any of the ex-league twirlers was done by William Phillips, Sr., who could still enter the box, and through his command of the sphere and his ability to hurl elusive curves and his "gray" matter still show some of the youthful phenoms of today a few pointers about the art of pitching. While probably Mr. Phillips could not "go the route" of nine innings, for four or five innings he could still make amateur ball clubs sit up and take notice.

He had good control and speed, and his work bordered on the marvelous. He also landed on the ball in his turn at bat.

For the ex-leaguers, Kuhn played well at shortstop. Mitchell caught a good game, and Osborne fielded well.

For the local team, Lattin pitched for a few innings until he was succeeded by "Bill" Phillips, Jr.

There were a number of changes in the lineup of the ex-leaguers, Mr. Tener and Mr. Wolfe returning, and were succeeded by Johnny Jenkins and Carl Weitz, the former of the Ohio league, and the latter of the Mexican league. The score:

Swamp Snake Found Far From Its Native Habitat

Columbia, S. C.—A party of students, headed by Prof. J. T. C. of the University of South Carolina, while searching weeds and ponds near here, made what is believed to be a scientific discovery of importance.

An adolescent specimen of the black swamp snake, known as "Sematrix pregen," hitherto reported only in Florida, was found.

The question that will interest all biologists is how the snake came to be found in a locality 300 miles north of its established northernmost range.

Professor Corrington asserted that such an animal could be a stray or accidental one is out of the question, as these snakes are of a very stationary and retiring nature.

"The only explanation which the facts will admit is that the snake has been overlooked in the intervening territory of Florida, Georgia and the remainder of South Carolina. Further research should reveal additional specimens."

BENTLEYVILLE HIGH HAS PROMISING GRID PROSPECTS

An enthusiastic meeting of the high school football squad was held in the high school building last Monday night. At this time more than twenty-five candidates reported and several more have been added since. The preliminary training has been started, two practices being held daily at the Richardson park. One is held at 10 o'clock in the morning for the boys who are not working and another at 5 o'clock for the entire squad.

The workouts are devoted to fundamentals and the men are impressed with the necessity for clean handling of the ball.

New equipment has been purchased for the varsity squad and with the wealth of new material at hand the fight for every position promises to be spirited. The members of last year's squad have the advantage of experience but the new members have a decided advantage in weight.

Leading the list of new men is Pete Evans of Ellsworth, who tips the scales at 190 pounds. He will be a member of the senior class. Other and Clifford Crago, freshmen and Milton Decker, last year a guard of the Indiana High school team, all of whom balance the beam around 175. Sariga, another Ellsworth boy is not so heavy, but is making up the difference in speed and aggressiveness.

Known to local fans are Fred Crisina, Ed Richardson and his brother, Del, captain of last year's basketball team and Sam Vernalis.—The Bentleyville Leader.

PROS TO PLAY IN A BIG MATCH AT NEMACOLIN

One of the biggest golf matches of the year in Washington county is to be played at the Nemacolin Country club on Sunday when Eddie Towns of the Shennepin Country club, who recently won the professional championship at Bedford Springs and Herbert Lawlor of the Edgewood Country club, meet James Devlin, professional at the Nemacolin Country club, and Horace Brand, for two years professional at the Washington County Golf and Country club, who is now employed at Spalding's in Pittsburgh.

The attendance promises to be large.

DOGS ARE TRAINED TO GUIDE THE BLIND

Experts Find Female More Reliable Than the Male.

Potsdam, Germany.—In this historic city, where once Frederick the Great, lover of animals, erected burial mounds for his favorite greyhounds directly outside Sans Souci castle, there has been established a national training school for a type of dog commonly known as the guide dog for blind soldiers.

Minute patience must be exercised by the two trainers in charge to prepare the dogs for their task. Those selected are almost invariably female spaniels. It has been found that female dogs are the only dependable ones. Males are apt to forget their duties when they see a good chance for a fight. With the female the maternal instinct, the feeling of caring affectionately for the blind master, is uppermost.

Whip Is Never Applied. Rucker and Weebering, the two trainers of the Potsdam kennel, put the dog through a rigid course of training in which, however, the whip is never applied. The dog must learn to walk slowly, to obey the master's every word, to fetch things for him when desired, not only to avoid the holes and projections and ditches dangerous to itself, but also to pull the master over far enough for him to avoid danger.

Supposing, for instance, there is a projecting wall box. It is no hindrance to the dog, but the animal must be taught that its master should be so led as to avoid running into it. These dogs must also learn to gauge the speed of traffic so as to indicate to their master whether it is safe to cross the street.

When the time has come for the dog to pass its final examination the trainer harnesses the dog and bids it lead its teacher, whose eyes are tied for the purpose, through Potsdam. The trainer can then tell whether the dog has mastered the technique of leading.

Psychology Is Great Factor. Next the prospective master is sent for. All blind persons who desire a guide dog must take up residence in the training school for a period of six weeks, so that master and dog may get used to each other. Not always is the dog first selected for a particular blind man the proper one for that person.

Psychological factors play a great role in this matter. During the six weeks' trial period, the shepherd dog remains at the prospective master's side day and night.

Few persons perhaps realize that the task for a dog of acting as guide to a blind man is a nerve-racking one. The Potsdam trainers figure that no guide dog lasts longer than four or five years. After that it is a nervous wreck.

There have been numerous cases on record of such dogs going crazy from actual nervousness.

PRESIDENT PLANS
ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

Plymouth, Vt., August 22.—President Coolidge has decided to make a more active campaign than was originally planned for him by campaign managers, it was learned here today. He will accept speaking engagements within reasonable distance from Washington, selecting from a flood of invitations those which appear to offer the best opportunities for explaining his own views.

Mr. Coolidge has recognized his opponents are making a fight on fundamental economic issues and he believes that personal utterances will then emphasize his stand on them.

Doubting Banks, Keep $400,000,000 in Socks

Washington.—In the collective ginger jars and stockings of the United States there is a total of more than $400,000,000 jealously hoarded away, according to estimates by Joseph S. McCoy, United States treasury actuary, for the current issue of the American Bankers' Association Journal.

Eight thousand Americans may safely be put in the miser class, McCoy believes. They just like to see their money and gloat over it and call it pet names, and among them they are keeping $44,000,000 out of circulation.

Then there are the children's banks. Probably 2,500,000 kids have such banks, and there is perhaps an average of 60 cents in each, making a total of $1,500,000 thus hoarded away. McCoy doesn't go so far as to charge the kids with wanting to let their money stay in the pin-proof receptacles.

About half of the entire hoarded wealth of the United States is in the cupboards and under the mattresses of foreign-born residents, who aren't yet used to banks. And farmers are hoarding a total of $125,000,000, McCoy says.
